Preface

The annual plan and its budget in the educational sector is prepared at DIET based on the present vision and need of the district. The Proposals of the programmes and activities for this plan need to be placed with the backup of real data in the field. To meet this demand DIET has prepared a comprehensive data base gathering details from functionaries working for the cause of the cultural and educational upliftment of the district. This data has to be updated yearly. All suggestions for improvement are welcome.

Introduction

Wayanad one of the loveliest stations of Kerala nestles among the mountains of the Western Ghats. This green paradise, located at a distance of 100 kms from the sea shore of Kozhikode, lies at a height of 700 - 1200 m. Above sea level on the north eastern part of the state. It lies between North latitude of 11°c and 15°28 and east longitude of 75°47 and 70°27.

The present district of wayanad was carved out from the parts of Kozhikode and Kannur districts. and it came in to being on 1st november 1980 as the 12th District of Kerala. The name Wayanad is belived to be derived from the word 'Vayal Nadu' meaning the land of paddy fields. Most of the reserve forests in the state are in this district. A large percentage of the population are Tribals consisting of various sects like Paniyas, Kurumas, Adiyas, Kurichiyas, Ooralis and Kattunaikens. This back ward district is perhaps, one of the biggest foriegn exchange earner of the state, thanks to its cash crops like pepper, cardamom, coffee, Tea and other condiments.

History

The pictorial writings engraved on the walls of caves and evidences excavated from other places prompt that organised human life existed in Wayanad at least ten centuries before christ. Recorded history of this district is available from the 18th century. In ancient times this land was ruled by the Rajas of Veda Tribe. In later days, wayanad came under the rule of the Pazhassi Raja of Kottayan dynasty. When Hyder Ali became the ruler of Mysore, he invaded wayanad and brought it under his rule. In the days of Tipu, wayanad was restored to the Kottayam royal dynasty. But when Tipu, as a part of Sreerangapattanam Truce, handed over the entire malabar region to British, there started fierce encounters between the British and Kerala Varma Pazhassi Raja of Kottayam. Eventually when Raja killed himself, wayanad fell in to the hands of British. The British authorities opened up the plateau for cultivation of tea and other cash crops. Roads were laid across the dangerous slopes of wayanad from Kozhikode and Thalassery. Then roads were extended to Mysore and Ooty. settlers from all parts of kerala poured. In order to fulfill the aspirations of the people of wayanad for development, North Wayanad (Formerly a part of Kannur district) and South Wayanad (Formerly a part of Kozhikode district) were carved out and joined together to form the present district of wayanad in 1980.

Sailent Features

Topography

The total geographical area of wayanad is 2126 Sq. kms. Which is 5.48 percent of the state. Out of this 78787 hectares is reserved forest. The total population in wayanad is -672128 which forms 2.31% of the state total.

Wayanad is bounded on the east and north by the districts of Tamil Nadu and Karnataka on the South by Malapuram and on the West by Kozhikode and Kannur.

Blessed with mist - clad mountain and sylvan Valleys wayanad with its idyllic nature and nearness to Ooty and Mysore. offer tremendous tourist potentialities.

Placed on the southern tip of the Deccan plateau its prime glory is the majestic Western ghats with lofty ridges interspersed with magnificent forests, tangled jungles and deep valleys. Due to the peculiar terrain there are east flowing and west flowing rivers.

DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

Kalpetta is the headquarters of the Wayanad District Administration with Civil Station and other main offices. For the smooth the running of the revenue administration, the district is divided in to three taluks, namely, Sulthan Bathery, Vythiri and Mananthavady. There are six firkas and 49 villages under these taluks. There is only one divisional office in this district that is functioning at Mananthavady.

DISTRICT PANCHAYAT

The Wayanad District Panchayat office functions at Kalpetta near Civil Station. There are three Block 25 Grama Panchayats in this district.

The block panchayats are (1) Sulthan Bathery, (2) Kalpetta and (3) Mananthavady. Kalpetta is the only municipality in the district.

PEOPLE

One important characteristic feature of this district is the large adivasi population, consisting mainly of Kurunas, Adiyars, Kurichyas, Ooralis, Kadans, Kattunaikkans are the different aboriginal tribes of wayanad. The Kurichyar is the most developed among them. They are small land owners, whereas the members of other tribes are mostly labourers. Wayanad district stands first in the case of adivasi population (about 36%) among the state.

Wayanad has a large settler population. There are people from almost all parts of Kerala who migrated to this land for building up their lives. Wayanad has a small jain community consisting of Gowders who came from Kamataka. They have built beautiful temples all over the district. Almost all sections of communities are represented. One fourth population of Wayanad is constituted by Christians. Muslims constitute another one fourth population and rest of the population belongs to Hindus. Their hard work and sacrifice helped to prosper. On other hand, the last few decades have seen the complete Marginalisation of the indigeneous people.

Chembra Peak: The hills, rocks and valleys which contribute to the very unique character of Wayanad provide a lot for adventure tourism. Trekking to the Chembra peak is a risky mountaineering endeavour. Chembra peak, the highest hill in Wayanad, is near Meppadi town. Trekking to the top of this peak takes almost a day. Tourists can also stay one or two days at the top of the peak in temporary camps. District Tourism Promotion Council provides guides, sleeping bags, canvases, huts and trekking implements on hire. The scenic beauty of Wayanad, which is visible from the top of Chembra, is very exhilarating.

Edakkal Caves: This location of breathtaking beauty is three kilometers from Ambalavayal which is 25 kilometers from Kalpetta. The Edakkal cave in the Ambukuthy mountain, is not a cave in the real sense. As stated in the India Antiquary (Vol.XXX, page - 410) and quoted in the District Gazette, Kozhikode, it is only a cleft about 96ft. long and 22ft wide in the rock'. It is a fissure made by a corner of rock splitting off from the main body due to some natural causes. The depth of both the cleft and the fissure is 30ft. What makes it a cave to the ordinary observer is the fact that in the other portion of the large cleft, and enormous rock weighing several tones, has fallen forming a roof over a large part of it. The rock wall contains some interesting carvings, which represent human and animal figures and objects of human use and symbols. These carvings speak of a highly civilized people of pre-historic age and inspires the archaeologists and historians age and inspires the archaeologists and historians to rewrite the history of Wayanad and Kerala as a whole.

Kuruva Island : The Kuruva island, 950 acres of ever green forest on the tributaries of east flowing river Kabani, is an ideal picnic spot, far away from the disturbances of city life. The island is uninhabited. Rare species of birds, orchids and herbs are the sovereigns of this supernal kingdom. It is 17Kms. East of Mananthavady and 40 kms. north west of Sulthan Bathery.

Lakkidi : One of the highest location in Wayanad, Lakkidi also commands a picturesque scenery it is about 58kms. North east of Kozhikode and five kms south of Vythiri. Lakkidi the gate way of Wayanad, lies a top Thamarassery, a ghat pass at an elevation of 700m. above mean sea level. The lofty mountain peaks, the gurgling stream, luxuriant vegetation and the bird's eye view of the deep valley on the south, with its winding roads, are breath taking. The 12kms long journey from Adivaram to Lakkidi through ghat road with nine hairpin bends amidst thick forests, is a fascinating experience.

Muthanga Wild Life Sanctuary : Muthanga, which is 16 kms. East of Sulthan Bathery, is located very near to the Karnataka border. Wild forests covering an area of 345 sq.kms form the Muthanga wild life sanctuary; the biggest abode of wild animals in Malabar. Elephant, spotted deer, bison, tiger, cheeta, wild bear, etc. are found in this sanctuary. The forest Department has facilities for providing elephant rides to tourists, here.

Pakshipathalam : Pakshipathalam in the Brahmagiri hills at Thirunelli, is a challenging tourist spot for any adventure seeking tourist. To reach Pakshipathalam seventeen kilometers have to be covered through wild forest. The deep rock caves, formed among the thick blocks of rocks at the northern top end of the Brahmagiri, are the abode of various birds and wild beasts, Special permission has to be obtained from Forest Department to go to Pakshipathalam. District Tourism Promotion Council arranges vehicle, guides, camping equipments, etc. to the tourists, on hire.

Pazhassi Raja Tomb: Pazhassi Tourist Resort at Mananthavady is a good picnic centre in north Wayanad. There is a good aquarium here. Coin-operated toys for children and boating facilities for tourists are available here. Pazhassi Raja, the Pookot Lake : It is a natural fresh water lake, brimmed with ever green mountains that has an area of 8.5ha and the maximum water depth is 6.5mtrs. This lake is three kms. South of Vythiri.

Sentinel Rock Waterfalls: This waterfall is at Vellarimala village near Chooraimala in Meppadi Panchayath. It is a picnic spot as well as a trekking centre. The sentinel rock, a rock of more than 200 m.in height, is ideal for rock climbing.

Kanthanpara Waterfalls: Relatively smaller than Sentinel Rock Waterfall and rather less frequented, Kanthanpara and its surroundings are nonetheless very pleasant. An easy hike away from the main road, it is perfect for picnic.

Soochippara Waterfalls : The waterfalls at Soochippara near Meppadi is really a treasure of nature, yet to be discovered. The stretches of waterfalls ranging at places from 100 to 300 feet height is a treat to the eyes. The pool below, provides for water rafting,swimming, bathing, etc. The tree top huts at Soochippara give an unique view of the valleys of the Western Ghats and the glimmering shallow waters of the surrounding springs.

Banasura Sagar Dam : This is the largest earth dam in India. The topography here is such that many islands will be formed in the upstream of the dam when the dam is full. These islands with the background of the Banasura hill will provide a hypnotizing sight to tourists.

CENTRES OF WORSHIP

Thirunelli Temple : Nestled amidst mountains and forests, the ancient riverside temple of Thirunelli is a fine specimen of classical Kerala Temple Architecture. The temple is dedicated by Brahma to Vishnu in the form of Charturbhuja. Often referred to as Dakshina Kasi (the Kasi of South), this temple draws pilgrims from all over, primarily for ancestral rites. A short walk from Thirunelly temple is the clear mountain spring known as Papanasini. A ritual dip here is believed to wash away all the sins. The two main festivals here are in April and Bathery and 29kms away from Mananthavady.

Valliyoorkavu Temple : This Temple is dedicated to Mother Goddess, manifest in three principal forms of Vana Durga, Bhadrakali and Jala Durga is an important place of worship for the tribal communities in Wayanad. The annual 15 day festival is in March/April. The temple is 24kms away from Kalpetta, 31kms away from Sulthan Bathery and 5kms. away from Mananthavady.

Sita Lava-Kusha Temple : This is the only known temple dedicated to Lava and Kusha, the sons of Lord Rama, Local legends connect this region with many important episodes from the Ramayana. As the favoured shrine of the Pazhassi Raja, this temple has traditionally permitted entry to devotees from all faiths. The temple is 50kms. Away from Kalpetta, 25kms away from Sulthan Bathery and 41kms away from Mananthavady.

Thrissilery Shiva Temple: This stunning temple of rather perfect architectural proportions, is inextricably linked with the Vishnu temple at Thirunelly. It is believed that the performance of ancestral lrites at Thirunelly remain unfinished unless followed by offerings at this temple. Within the premises there is also a shrine devoted to Jala Durga, believed to have been installed by no less a personage than the legendary Parasurama. There are many myths connected with the temple tank here, 41kms away from Mananthavady.

Pallikunnu Church: Dedicated to the Lourdes Matha, Pallikunnu Church was established in 1905 at the initiative of a French Missionary Fr. Jeffrine. An interesting aspect of this church is that it has several rituals and practices similar to those prevalent in Hindu temples. The annual two week "Perunal" festival in early February draws large number of devotees from other parts of Kerala, as well as outside. The temple is 19kms away from Kalpetta, 38kms away from Sulthan Bathery and 23kms away from Mananthavady.

Sulthan Bathery Jain Temple: This Temple is one of the most important amongst a series of ruins spread across the state of Kerala that testify to a period of a strong Jain Presence in this region, Believed to have been built in the 13th century, it served as a Hindu shrine, an important centre for commercial activity and eventually as a battery (ammunition store) for Tipu Sulthan's marching armies. Apart from this temple, there are other significant Jain remnants in Wayanad. The temples at Panchavayal and Puthenangadi are the best known of these. With their beautifully cared pillars now partly ruined, and the area rather derelict, these sites exude a peculiar air of mystery. The temple is 24kms away from Kalpetta, 1km away from Sulthan Bathery and 41kms away from Mananthavady.
